Mrs. Simonson Art League Hostess.

Mrs. Devore N. Simonson will be hostess at the weekly informal Tri-City Art league tea to be held tomorrow afternoon at the Art league studios, 222 1-3 Main street, Davenport, at which time an exhibition of water color paintings by Frank S. Welsbrook will be shown. The exhibit will remain on view throughout the following week. Mr. Welsbrook is a Davenport artist, but his reputation is not merely of a local nature, his work having been exhibited at the Art institute in Chicago, in Omaha, New York and in St. Paul, where he received the bronze medal designed by Paul Manasse, for his "Winter," a dignified landscape which is to be included in the present exhibition. Mr. Welsbrook is a painter of the more romantic moods of nature, his "Moonlight," "Early Morning" and "Kalm's Bay" landscapes being among his most charming interpretations. The subject of nearly all his paintings is taken from the neighborhood of the tri-cities, family buildings, quaint streets, etc., being invested by him with a poetic significance. Technically, his work is admirable, his methods are direct and his colors fresh, clear and transparent. A great treat is in store for all art lovers at tomorrow's tea. The public is invited.

Entertain Bible Class.

Mrs. Charles Myers entertained the Covenant bible class of the First Methodist church at her home, 1227 Sixteenth street, last evening. There were 45 members present.
